SUBURBAN NEWS.

Since the abandonment of the Orphans' Asylum here there has been no institution in this city comparable, in point of public beneficence, to the Alexandria Infirmary. During the year the receipts of the institution have been $3,021.46 and the expenditures $2,674.72, leaving a balance of $346.74. The receipts have been derived from the $500 appropriated by the city council, $100 contributed by Mrs. E. L. Daingerfield, $25 by Mrs. Carlin and $238.70 from miscellaneous sources, the residues being collections from the churches of the city. A celebration in honor of St. Patrick's pany seems to be trying to rid itself of the bulevard feature, and get permission to build a railroad. The members of the legislature from Prince George's, Howard and saltimore counties made some opposition to this change, as they were under the impression that the company desired to use the BaltImore and Wasnington turnpike for the road, and thus cut off public travel over the road. The company and the counsel for the commissioners for the three sel for the commissioners for the commissioners. over the road. The company and the coun-sel for the commissioners for the three mentioned counties, it is understood, have satisfactorily arranged matters, the com-pany agreeing, should it use the turnpike, to build another equally as good road in its place. It is now thought that the bill will soon pass the legislature. The fran-chise, if granted, is acknowledged to be a valuable one, and the motive power of the railroad is in the discretion of its managers. Dr. Albert B. Hyatt of Washington has
